

Writing Narrative and Informational, and Opinion Pieces About Kale

Jenna Mobley

Overview:

This lesson will challenge students to describe kale in many different ways. Students will brainstorm qualities and uses of kale from the perspective of a chef, historian, doctor, scientist, artist, and animal. Students will be guided in dictating, drawing, and/or writing both a narrative story (using characters, setting, and plot) and an informational piece about kale (identifying a main idea and including details).

Time Needed: 35 minutes

Common Core Standards:

- Text Types and Purposes
 - Kindergarten
 - CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.K.2 - Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to compose informative/explanatory texts in which they name what they are writing about and supply some information about the topic.
 - CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.K.3 - Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to narrate a single event or several loosely linked events, tell about the events in the order in which they occurred, and provide a reaction to what happened.
 - 1st Grade
 - CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.1.2 - Write informative/explanatory texts in which they name a topic, supply some facts about the topic, and provide some sense of closure.
 - CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.1.3 - Write narratives in which they recount two or more appropriately sequenced events, include some details regarding what happened, use temporal words to signal event order, and provide some sense of closure.
 - 2nd Grade
 - CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.2.2 - Write informative/explanatory texts in which they introduce a topic, use facts and definitions to develop points, and provide a concluding statement or section.
 - CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.2.3 - Write narratives in which they recount a well-elaborated event or short sequence of events, include details to describe actions, thoughts, and feelings, use temporal words to signal event order, and provide a sense of closure.

Writing Narrative and Informational, and Opinion Pieces About Kale

Objectives:

- Students will write an informative text that describes kale using details and a concluding statement.
- Students will write a narrative about kale that recounts a short sequence of events and provides a sense of closure.

Materials:

- Hats or props to represent different types of people (or use these Posters)
- Kale or photos of kale
- Narrative Writing Mind Map Poster
- Informational Writing Mind Map Poster

Outline:

- Engage: Kale observation with five senses (an optional taste test could be included)
- Explore: Explore attributes of kale and its uses from many perspectives
- Explain: Review elements of narrative and informational texts
- Extend: Draw, dictate, or write narrative and informational texts about kale

Lesson Plan:

- Engage (whole group / at the garden or on the carpet) - 5 minutes
 - Observe a kale plant or kale leaves together either in the garden or in the classroom. Ask students to describe the plant. Encourage students to think creatively, remind them to use all of their senses.
 - Optional: Prepare kale pesto before class or make in class for a kale taste test
- Explore (small groups / at seats) - 10 minutes
 - Teacher asks students to think creatively about how the qualities of kale and uses may be viewed in different ways by different people.
 - Teacher distributes various props or posters (one to each small group) to represent different types of people and models one thought each person may ask before asking students to develop their own in their small groups.

Examples may include:

- Chef:
 - What does this taste like?
 - What would happen if I cooked it?
 - What other foods would it taste good with?

Writing Narrative and Informational, and Opinion Pieces About Kale

- Historian:
 - How long has this plant been growing on the planet?
 - How long have people been eating it?
- Doctor:
 - What vitamins and minerals does this plant contain?
 - How does this plant help human bodies?
- Scientist:
 - How does this plant grow?
 - What plant family does it belong to?
- Artist:
 - What color would I use to paint it?
 - What shape are the different parts of the plant?
- Animal:
 - Will this taste good?
 - Is it poisonous? Will it hurt me to eat it?
- Plant:
 - Will this plant help me grow?
 - Will it drink all of my water?
 - Will I grow taller and get to the sunlight first?
- Explain / Extend (independent or in small groups / at seats) - 20 minutes
 - Introduce that there are many ways to write about kale (or any topic) if we just think creatively.
 - Explain narrative writing using a mind map to identify the elements:
 - Setting
 - Characters
 - Plot (beginning, middle, end)
 - Students create their own narratives about kale (in small groups or independently) by drawing, dictating, or writing.
 - Explain informational writing using a mind map to identify the elements:
 - Main Idea
 - Details
 - Students create their own informational texts about kale (in small groups or independently) by drawing, dictating, or writing.
